Admonition regarding the work in the vineyard....

Spreading the Gospel....

Spread the Gospel, and I will bless you. The ignorance of that which brings salvation to man, you shall seek to transform through your work in My vineyard and bring light to men; you shall instruct them in My name, you shall proclaim to them only the divine doctrine of love and exhort them to live according to this doctrine.

Humans have become true worldly people, who strive only to create prosperity for themselves and no longer remember their neighbor. But they do not know that self-love means the death of their spirit; they do not know that the purpose of man on earth is to bring his soul to maturity through serving love for one's neighbor, and they do not know that they are not fulfilling their task in the slightest and therefore the earthly life passes by unsuccessfully for the soul.

So, as you carry My Gospel among men, make them also aware of their earthly task, and advise and warn them to utilize their lives for eternity. You then bring a light into the darkness in which men wander. And this is necessary, so that they cannot say they remained completely ignorant of their earthly task. You must speak to them as human to human, because they have long since dismissed the church doctrine; you must explain to them that earthly life is a means to an end, but not an end in itself; you must point them to their duties toward Me, as their Creator and Father from eternity, who also has rights over My children, and by submitting to Him, they recognize Him as their Father.

Present to them the correct relationship in which they should stand toward Me, explain to them the motive for their human existence and My infinite love and patience to win My creatures for eternity. Present to them My love, and exhort them to the reciprocal love, which they only prove to Me through selfless love for their neighbor. Make them attentive to the need where they can and should intervene helpfully, if they wish to achieve My favor.... then you are true heralds of My Gospel on earth, then you are My true disciples, who are tirelessly active in My name, who continue what I have begun on earth.... to show humans the way of love, which they must absolutely walk if they wish to be saved.

I can only speak to them through humans, and therefore you shall serve Me by working in My stead on the souls who are not aware of the purpose of their existence, whom I do not want to let be lost, but wish to help through you, so that they may gain knowledge of My Gospel and live according to it....

Amen
