The island of Patmos in the Aegean Sea was a rugged and desolate island off the coast of Asia Minor. The Apostle John was exiled there and wrote the Book of Revelation.

For many Christians, "The Revelation of John" or the Apocalypse is, significantly, a "book with seven seals." They expect to see externally what happens in the soul-spiritual development of man, that is, within him. Thus, in the course of 2006, a handmaid of the Lord was privileged to receive several revelations as Father's Words, which contain a unique and authentic interpretation of these Scripture words, since their source is Jesus Christ Himself. We thank Him with all our hearts for this extraordinary grace and ask Him to be spiritually present as we read these following words.

The so-called "Proconsulate of Asia" was a Roman province that covered the western part of Asia Minor and of which Ephesus was the capital.

I speak the truth, and no one can escape this word

1. Thus speak, My child, an interpretation of the Revelation of John, the letters which he wrote to the churches, which are representative, as there are: Ephesus for My quality of love, Smyrna for the wisdom of knowledge, of light, Pergamum for the will - whether for God or against, Thyatira for the order to live according to the commandments of love, Sardis for the seriousness to endure until death in order to experience the resurrection of life, Philadelphia for the patience which endures and perseveres in all things, and Laodicea for the mercy which has not yet prevailed in men, since they are neither hot nor cold, but lukewarm and as a result their eyes are blinded.

2. John, living love, testifies to what he saw: the word of God, the word of my love, my word from your Father, Jesus Christ. And forever and ever, blessed is he who proclaims the words of prophecy, and blessed is he who hears them – that is, who receives them alive in his heart, accepts them, and puts them into practice – who holds fast to what is written in them, for love lives, and the time is near. The time is near its end, for eternity is dawning in your hearts.

3. John, the Love, speaks again to the 7 churches, the 7 congregations that you now are, in the East, in the province of Asia, in the East, in the land of the rising sun. My enlightenment, My grace, and My peace are with you – from Me, Who I am and Who I always have been from eternity, and Who has now come to strengthen the 7 spirits, the 7 qualities within you, and to place them on your throne: namely, to establish Love, Wisdom, My Will, My Order, My Seriousness, My Patience, and My Mercy in your heart and to place them on the throne, so that My Order may reign forever, now and forever. – Amen.

4. It says: "...for the time is near!", and I say: The time has come and the time is here. The time of the Book of Revelation is being fulfilled, for it is the time of the end of the old world, for I once spoke beneath the cross: "Behold, I make all things new!" And even today, My wounds are open, and even today, through humble maids and servants, I speak to you this "Behold, I make all things new!" If you remain in love for Me and remain faithful to Me, then you are appointed. Open your ears of the Spirit and hear what the Spirit speaks:

5. Behold, I am the faithful witness, the firstborn from the dead, and Jesus Christ. I am the ruler over the kingdoms of the earth, and I have come to you. I love you and have freed you from your sins through My blood. Do according to My words, and you will live, as I live, and you will rise from the dead, as I have risen, and you will never experience the second death. Only those who are lukewarm and neither hot nor cold, who practice paganism, who worship idols, who practice sorcery and do not believe in My word, who live in fornication and are adulterous in nature, will incur the second death, for they misinterpret My words, they shape the word according to their own sense, according to their own will.

6. See and hear: Humanity is corrupted to its core, and the Second Flood will come upon it. The city of Babylon burned and still burns, and fire and brimstone rain from heaven, for the deeds of your sins are manifest and reach to the realms of My heavens, and they roar out and call forth My wrath, which is actually My deepest, most steadfast love, deep into hell. Thus I call upon you:

7. Hear the revelation that now comes from Me, to awaken and establish you! I make you priests to Me and to My Father, and you are in glory, and I am the ruler in you forever and ever. Amen.

8. And behold, I have come in the clouds, that is, in My prophecy and my prophecy in your hearts. From your innermost being, the truth will shine forth, for I place it in your hearts as your Father, as the Word, as eternal love and life in deepest mercy, now and forever. In you, who are My followers and disciples, what I conveyed to you in the Book of Revelation 2,000 years ago will come alive and be fulfilled. Read the words of the Book of Revelation, for they are repeated in you. They have been fulfilled in you, for you have become companions of truth and love, for you have followed Me in all seriousness and will never return to the realm of sin and death. For you have come alive and stand at the gates of life's fulfillment, for you have made a firm covenant with your minds never to sin and to belong to the old Adamic flesh and the flesh of Eve.

9. "Amen. - I am the beginning and the end!" thus speak I, your Lord and your God, Father Jesus Christ, and I have come, I am the ruler over everything and everyone. If you bow down to Me in love, then I am the ruler in you and will conquer. I know of your distress, but persevere, for the Kingdom is at hand, and I, Jesus Christ, am steadfast in you, the one who perseveres. On My day, I will seize and penetrate you in spirit, and you will now hear My voice within you, which is inaudible to the world, as a powerful and quiet, yet loud, because it shakes your conscience, a voice that sounds like a trumpet and sets you vibrating in your body and in your soul, and makes the strings in your hearts resonate. - So know this: I sent the message to John, so that it may now again be vividly before your eyes and will be explained and illuminated even more deeply through this maid.

10. I speak the truth; it is like a two-edged sword, and no one can escape this word. It will separate good from evil and separate the goats from the sheep, and the lambs who are written in the Book of Life will be welcomed into My kingdom. They are the sacrificial meal that I receive and accept from your loving hearts, for I have sent you into this world among the wolves to proclaim the imminent end of the old world and its activities. Be My people, stand firm, and recognize the strength I give you through love!

11. So recite, My child, what I am about to say to you in your heart. Thus I speak to you as the representative of love, Church of Ephesus: Keep your love and strengthen it even more, and return to your very first flaming love, for I want to strengthen you in your deepest heart to make love the chandelier of life. I will give you to eat and drink from the Tree of Life. The fruits will nourish all who come to you. Your love will be poured out, and you will recognize who is lying and who does not have this true love in their heart. Do not grow weary of continuing to confess My name! Persevere and carry the sword of truth within you. Because you have confessed My name, you will not grow weary. ...

My voice opens to you the source of life

1. And so continue: I take a step back for your sake and explain how I called John to proclaim the future, the present, and the past in the great Revelation, in its apocalyptic implications. And it was said: "He was taken by the Spirit on the day of the Lord," that is, in his quiet little room, the Spirit filled him completely, and he heard My voice, just as I also speak to you when you unite yourselves fully with Me in humility and purity of heart, laying aside all your own desires and hopes, laying them down before Me, becoming free.

2. And it was said, this voice speaks: Write in a book that you see and send it to the 7 churches, to the 7 communities. The people who at that time strove for My teachings, who recognized the truth, were – just like you – gripped by the spirit and recognized the importance of My 7 attributes within themselves and thus also formed the 7 lampstands, just as you now gather and also form 7 communities in the spiritual sense, 7 in one, and the One among you. And I turn to you when you turn away from the world. It was said: "Then I turned around because I wanted to see the voice."

3. And so you too should turn around, turn away from the old, if you want to see and hear my voice in your spirit, which now speaks to you. And you see me in the midst of the lampstands as a man and God at the same time, and I am clothed from eternity with a garment that reaches down to my feet. That is, my humility is perfect from top to toe, even as a man, and it reaches down to the last sinner, grasping him with both hands and calling him to conversion, to repentance, and to return home.

4. It further says that My breast is girded with a golden belt, which means: Love encompasses My entire being, penetrates My entire being, is My entire being – like gold, as pure and clear and refined. The hair of My head is white as snow-white wool. Wisdom crowns My head and is radiant like a sun. My eyes are like flaming fire, which means: Wisdom sees you with love, and this love warms, and this wisdom is love, and love is full of wisdom. And My feet are like precious bronze, standing on the ground of humility and truth. I am the ground on which you should stand, glowing, inspired, permeated by My love.

5. And My voice is like the sound of many waters. My voice opens the fountain of life to you. My voice is like water, the symbol of humility, which always goes to the lowest places, moving downwards, seeking to nourish, to water, to save, and to flow preciously around whatever reaches out, sighing and pleading, to mercy, to turn away from the world's cesspool of sin and return home to My Father's Heart. This for now, and more later, My child.

Amen. Your Father Jesus, - Amen.

In you the paradise of God will be reborn

1. In this year of judgment, I explain to you the Book of Revelation, also called the "Apocalypse," to demonstrate to you your own transcendence, your own development in My presence among you. You are the 7 churches, you are the 7 lampstands and the 7 stars, the 7 attributes, and I am in your midst, the true man, the true God. Thus, recognize in this Apocalypse your earthly life, your development, and your evolution toward the Spirit of Truth, so that you can benefit from these words that were given to John and are still given to him – namely, the John within you – so that you can also relive the events of suffering and death within yourself, so that you take up the cross and overthrow the whore of Babylon, so that the seven trumpets sound and the seven vials of wrath poured out upon you are able to bring not terror but purification, so that you bring to life within you the words that were given to you for your benefit in your work in the vineyard, for without the necessary foundations you cannot understand or hear the inner Word. The purification must first take place within you, and so I give you what you need to understand.

2. I hold you in My right hand as the 7 stars, and I am among you and come with My sword of truth, and I impart to you the power of My love, for I am also in you. And when you see Me in fullness, you fall before My feet as if dead. That is, your old nature, including your serpent nature, the old brood of the adder, perishes and dies. For the old Adam and the old Eve cannot stand before My truth and My love; they must die so that the new human being and the new Church, the true earth and the true new heaven, can arise within you. And I speak to you:

3. Do not be afraid, for I am the Alpha and the Omega, I am the beginning and the end, I am the Living One. I in you was dead, but now I rise and live forever. And so, through Me, you have eternal life and receive the key of death and the key of the death of the world, to unlock the gate of heaven in your hearts and to close the gate of hell forever and ever, by creating a firm covenant with your senses, as long as you remain here on earth, never to belong to worldly matter and temptation, so that temptation cannot overwhelm or deceive you, but you are steadfast and always-directed toward Me – fulfill My will. And so it is said:

4. "But one thing speaks for you: You detest the actions of the Nicolaitans, which I also detest. That is, you detest doing what the love of the world is, namely, using My love for self-love and mixing the divine with the earthly, thus becoming lukewarm. Detest idolatry and sorcery, speaking with the dead to obtain divinations. Detest fortune-telling, detest same-sex sexual intercourse, detest the unnatural activities of the Sodomites and the Gomorrahs. Detest selfishness, detest sin!"

5. He who has ears, let him hear what the spirit within you says: "To all who conquer I will give to eat from the tree of life." That is, if you conquer your old nature, you will always feel the tree of life growing within you, see the fruits ripening, and always eat and drink from them within you, nourishing yourselves. Your spirit will nourish your soul and be the tree of life, and within you God's paradise will arise anew. For the tree of life exists only in paradise, in a wonderful garden where good deeds bear fruit, and the good will to submit to me also produces a new, strong will and new fruit.

6. And thus write and speak, My child, to the angel of the Church in Smyrna, that is, to My little children who are even more inclined towards wisdom and teaching, who must unite themselves with love in order to be completely whole. I speak as the First and the Last, I speak to Him who was crucified in the body, died and rose again and from then on dwells alive among you, who was crucified and died in you and has now risen again and will live forever. I speak because I know: You, Wisdom, are oppressed by the wisdom of the world and yet are rich, although you are poor in worldly wisdom, because I know: You have reviled, you have been reviled by those who claim that they - like you - want to save the world and bring true wisdom to the world. But they lie! They come with false teachings, mixed with the deeds and words of the serpent, and bring them among My people, so that My people cannot recognize the true wisdom that comes only from love and humility, humility toward Me and My true teaching, humility to obey.

7. The world is flooded with books full of mixed doctrines and errors, so finely interwoven and so finely woven that the seeking little children cannot at first distinguish what is truth and what is a finely woven lie. Thus, I must lead these little children, who are searching and wavering and pleading and sighing, to Me through much suffering, so that they may recognize the truth from within and that suffering has a good purpose, namely, to mortify the desires of the soul, so that the spirit can penetrate and the spirit can bring forth in you My Spirit, true wisdom, the true light of life, so that you may be able to distinguish in these writings, which are riddled with lies, what is true and what is false, what bears good and what evil fruit.

8. Do not fear the suffering that awaits you! The darkness wants to oppress you, to throw you into its prison to test you. But you will endure with Me as the One, and within you the Zero as Humility. That is, you will only be in distress for 10 days. These 10 days will be transformed into 1,000 years of peace and happiness, in which I, the One, and you, as the Trinity, as the three Zeros, as Humility, will cling to Me forever and ever, and we will thus form a unity as a bulwark against darkness and evil.

9. "Be faithful until death, and I will give you the crown of life." This means: I can place the crown on your head even here on earth, the crown of true wisdom that springs from love and mercy. This crown truly shines far and wide and crowns your head, crowns your knowledge, crowns the wisdom that arose from Me and My teachings. Have ears to hear what the spirit within you speaks. This wisdom can never be dethroned from the throne I give you. And again I say: All who remain steadfast in love will conquer with Me, for I am the victor, and all who conquer cannot be destroyed by the second death, spiritual death. You will always rise in My presence, at all times, as long as you hold fast to the truth of My love within you and nurture and allow the spirit within you to live, and bid farewell to the old Adam, the old body, and the old soul structure.

10. Live humility, My little children, live humility, for I, too, had to humble My wisdom to the last drop of blood. I shed everything for the sake of love, to free you from the prison of cold wisdom, which Satan would like to whisper to you here and there, saying: "I am God within you, and you have My power, the power of the subconscious. Use this power for good deeds!" - However, My little children, put aside this false and finely woven lie, reject it, and say:

11. "No, I want to carry the cross of humility faithfully and patiently with my Lord and Master, so that He may rise in me – He, my Father Jesus Christ, who is true life and true humble, sacrificial love, in order to raise up true wisdom, for He offered His wisdom to the Heavenly Father while He was still a human being on earth among us. And so we, little children, walk on earth under Him, under His Cross, and are united to the Father through the love and humility within us, and we reject the false wisdom that seeks to infuse us with false and sweet poison from the many esoteric writings. But we will not fall for it, for we hear His teaching." Yes, My little children, let him who has ears to hear what the Spirit says to the churches.

Amen. Your Father Jesus, - Amen.

In the inner spirit, let your will be subject to My Will

1. And thus speak, My child: Write on behalf of the congregation that once had its will in Pergamon. There, where the seat of the will is, there is also the seat of the Antichrist. (Something wants to prevent you from speaking these words, for that which is against it feels exposed, but My sword of truth will sweep over it and cut off its ambivalent tongue.) Pergamon represents the third quality, the will, and once Satan's throne was worshipped there, but now it has been brought to the heart of Europe, to the capital of the German lands, and admired in a museum. But [they] are only external stones that stand there. The offshoots are everywhere in the cities and in the places where trade, usurpation, and Satan's politics are carried out, where Freemasonry pulls its strings, where money is collected everywhere solely to support power in the world.

2. But you, My faithful ones, hold fast to My name, and where the opposing side now operates, you shall persevere faithfully. Forsake the sin of self-will and return to humility. In your inner spirit, let your will be subject to My will, and My will is the will for good and for truth, and for the salvation of the spirit in man. And so I give you, who are faithful and steadfast, of the bread of life, the manna that I promised you back then, the bread of life, the inner word, given through the Spirit in your hearts, and it will nourish your soul and your neighbors. Because you have fought the good fight and subjugated your will, you shall also receive the crown of victory. My name is written in your heart, and you are firm and faithful like the white stone you now receive.

Amen. Your Father Jesus, - Amen.

I have come and am working mightily among My people

1. My children, who also belong to the church in Sardis, be serious in your efforts. Now the warm months are coming. Everyone is happy to have survived the harsh winter – be it this way or that. But do not allow yourselves to be seduced by the pleasant warmth, but remain inwardly cold toward the world, clear in your will to serve Me, serious and firm, lest I come to you like a thief in the night, and you fail to recognize Me as your Lord and Master, as your Father, and above all, as your Bridegroom. Seize the Kingdom of Heaven by force! Be serious in your efforts and deeds to put the teachings into practice, for so many stand on feet of clay and shaky legs, having lost their seriousness, their heart is dying, their soul is sinking away. For without the spirit of strength and seriousness, everything is destroyed and falls prey to decay.

2. My children! The church of Sardis stood and stands for the seriousness of action, and without this seriousness, the will to do God's works will lose its power, for you will lose My power if you do not earnestly strive to wear and put on the pure white garment of My humility perfectly in everything, and to let it fall down to your feet. That is, if you clothe yourselves from head to toe with grace and humility out of My love that flows to you. Turn your gaze to Me at all times! I blow mightily where the spirit receives nourishment, and I blow away everything old and belonging to last autumn and winter. I melt the ice from the ground. Thus I also melt away your lukewarmness if you want to belong to Me again.

3. Be vigilant, My little children, especially now, and cleanse your garments if you have soiled them with lukewarmness and curiosity, if you have mixed them with mammon and the pursuits of the world. Become worthy again, rise from the sleep of death, for victory shall be yours, victory through the power of My Love, and you, too – clad in white garments – shall stand by My side here on Earth. For see: I have come and am working mightily among My Own, and if you do this, your name will never be erased from the Book of Life, but will shine forth in white, flaming, luminous letters and reach deep into My Heart. I will always be able to meet you before the almighty Spirit of My Love, and the angels will be your brothers – yes, they will cling to you and become your children.

Amen. Your Father Jesus, - Amen.

Stay and persevere in patience and in love for Me

1. What does it mean: "These things speak the Holy One, the True One, who has the key of David, who opens and no one can shut, who shuts and no one can open"? That means: I in you hold the key to open Heaven and the key to lock Hell. I am the beginning and the end. I am the offspring of David, the True One, the true way of truth and life. I am the Savior who makes your souls whole by being called within you to close the gates of Hell, to free you from evil, to protect you from temptation. I am the One who opens to you the one true love in our hearts, in the hearts of all of us. You are My heart, and I am your heart, where My love is the most important thing to you. My love has opened the gate in you that no one can close – not the world, nor the devil or Satan – for My love in you has truly paved the way to the Kingdom of Heaven; it has expanded your heart. You have recognized Me, your Father, and you never want to be torn from this path again. You do not want your heart to remain closed to My love.

2. So keep yourselves open to Me, your Father Jesus, at all times. You yourselves do not have the strength to close this hell. Only through Me, your Father Jesus, can you keep Hell closed. Furthermore, your strength is too weak to go it alone. But with Me, your Father, your Father Jesus, who is the Power Itself and who has the true, firm will to keep Heaven open for you, only with Me can you win!

3. Be patient when your strength is failing. Be patient, My children of Philadelphia, be the patience of Me, your Father, so that strength may grow and arise for you from My power. As long as you persevere faithfully in the patience of My love, you will receive the strength of life and, likewise, walk with Me through the gate of Heaven, even if you think your earthly strength is fading. I want to preserve you in spirit. I want to save and heal your souls. Thus, you will become faithful witnesses of My love and My work in this presence, in this present time, even if many around you are at the feet of Satan and worship him, giving preference to matter. So persevere in patience and mercy. Bless them, bless them, close your eyes for silence and for prayer, to turn to Me, to contemplate. Be calm, become still, and remain faithful in patience and humility.

4. You have My Word, and you persevere, for the earth is being tested, the world is being shaken. Around you, the lukewarm are being awakened; adversity and illness are overcoming them, so that they may cling even more deeply and earnestly to My teaching and My love – the love within you that is the true healing. For see, it says: "I am coming soon! Hold fast to what you have, so that no one takes your crown." That means: Remain and persevere in patience and in love for Me, so that the crown of life remains on your head – life itself, the luminous life that comes from the activity of your heart, from your faithfulness, from your love for Me. Everyone who conquers, I will make into a pillar of life, a pillar strong enough to support the whole heaven, to support the temple of God. Thus, your name will shine in the temple, the name I give you. It is called: the love of patience.

Amen. Your Father Jesus, - Amen.

My little children, turn within yourselves, be united with My earnestness

1. Now speak, you who are sitting again for the third year on the Linder Höhe *. Speak the words that apply to the church of Laodicea, to those who believe they are rich in all their thoughts, rich in power and strength, because they believe they are activating the power of the subconscious in union with Me and yet are on the wrong path, have bought false gold, have become involved with false gods and have thereby become lazy and lukewarm and no longer want to return to the path of humility, for they are accumulating prosperity, supposed harmony, false peace. They are accumulating in their memory the idea of being able to acquire wealth with the power of their thoughts. But this is lukewarm and I spit it out, for the path of humility leads through the valley of suffering, and so I say to you once again: Purify yourselves in the fire of My love! Take the refined gold and buy it with the deprivation of your soul's desires, with the self-denial of your self-will, with the laying down of your own ideas and plans.

2. Come to Me, My little children! Acquire the white garment of humility, accept it from My hands. I, your Father Jesus Christ, died on the cross. Had I been lukewarm, I would not have done this, and I would never have been able to lift the cup of suffering to My lips and drink it dry. My little children, turn around, introspect, become united with My seriousness, for seriousness is the opposite of lukewarmness, and whoever becomes serious and strong in self-denial will truly be able to practice mercy, not out of self-pity or compassion, or false compassion for one's neighbor, but out of true knowledge, out of innermost, deepest, most luminous insight, out of true wisdom, and out of true love. Therefore, mercy is the union of all My seven qualities; it is both the culmination and the beginning of love.

3. So you should know, My little children, that if you earnestly fight for the victory of self-denial, you will receive the banner of victory and advance with it, fully lighting the seventh candle on the candlestick of the seven qualities. My little children, thus speaks the only true and perfect merciful Father to you. At the height of life, I am the One who extends my hand to you in covenant and places the crown of life upon your head.

Amen. Your Father Jesus, - Amen.

I am like a trumpet that has the Word in itself, is the Word and expands the Word

1. And so I will give every child who studies the Book of Revelation his or her own interpretation and explanation, appropriate to his or her own spirit. So you too should not hesitate to proceed further and receive My words about this work, which specifically concerns you and your soul-spiritual development and can also benefit other children through you.

2. I am the Lord of the world, and I opened the door to Heaven through My death on the Cross, through My sacrifice. I am Myself the voice that proclaims God's voice. I am like a trumpet that has the Word within itself, is the Word, and expands the Word into many profound, creative and generating tones. And I said to John: "I will show you what will happen later." But it was also the case that I showed him what happened in the apostles, in those who had already accepted My teachings at that time, through My sacrifice and My redemption, and what will continue to happen through it up to your time and for all eternity, for your redemption, for the redemption of Lucifer's fall.

3. Since Lucifer fell and dragged many down with him, this work had to be determined from the very beginning, since My wise foresight saw everything within itself, and indeed this work had already been accomplished in Me. Yet I, as a human being, had to voluntarily take the cup, and thus this work has also already been accomplished in you through Me, through My death on the cross and My resurrection and ascension, and through My opening of Heaven for you. But it must be re-enacted by you yourselves here on earth, just as I have shown you everything as a model. Thus, you must re-enact this work for yourselves and then also for all your successors, and realize it through firm faith within yourselves.

4. And I took hold of you in spirit and will take hold of you immediately if your will obeys My will. And so you see the throne of God standing in the heaven of your heart, and He who sits on the throne has an appearance like a jasper and carnelian. The carnelian is luminous blood, and the jasper is solid, purified blood. So let yourselves be taken hold of by My holy blood. And all around the throne is a rainbow, which means that the 7 attributes of God are around Me, through Me, and also through you, in realization. Were you without Me, you would resemble the gray mist, like the heathens. But as it is, you are full of light, and this light has all the facets of the rainbow within it, the light that resembles the 7 attributes. Love, Wisdom, My Will, My Order, My Seriousness, My Patience and Mercy are in you like the 7 churches, the 7 congregations, and you, as the origin of Me, gather around Me, around My Divinity, around My Throne.

5. It says: "Around the throne are 24 thrones, and on the thrones sit 24 elders, dressed in white robes and with golden crowns on their heads." Thus, the angelic and spiritual hosts and the human beings, as the 2nd and the 4th, are around Me as My work, as My throne, and as the origin of creation. They are around Me and through Me the thrones and the elders, but only those who cling to Me and acknowledge Me as Jesus Christ, as the One who came to earth and brought salvation.

6. And before the throne is, as it were, a sea of glass. That is, the throne is in itself love, which is the highest. God is love, but the sea of glass, which resembles crystal, is wisdom established by the will of God, which flows from love, offering it the firm foundation to create and to love...

Be brave like the Lion of Judah

1. And it says: "Before the throne stand four creatures, full of eyes in front and behind." Now, what does that mean?: The eyes are like the deep wisdom of the Godhead, which can see into the heavens because of the spirit in the heart and also back into the hells in order to get an overview and information about everything. These four beings are like a lion. Well, the lion, an animal full of strength and courage, full of love. The Lion of Judah, who I am and the I am in you. You must seize the kingdom of heaven with force, look up to heaven courageously like a lion, defend your fruits of love like a lion does her cubs, like a mother lion her children, and the love within you must roar when it is betrayed and sold.

2. Now, the lion also represents the wrath of love. Love in itself and purely for itself is pure wrath, not as you understand it, My little children, but from the power of God, so that love must always triumph and must not and cannot be betrayed. Therefore, the lion, in his love, also has his eyes directed both forward and backward, in order to be able to discern in wisdom the will of God and the wiles of Satan.

3. So be vigilant, be strong and courageous through My power of love within you, courageous like the Lion of Judah. Be followers of My love and stand and roar when the love within you is about to be betrayed by sensuality, like a shining sun, like a lion that roars powerfully when it comes to love, to true discipleship, and to the truth from Me. Thus, the lion is the symbol of the strength you receive when you walk courageously, uprightly, and powerfully in My teachings of love, following only the love in your heart, the love of God, and the will of God. Thus, the lion is also a symbol of the will to claim that which belongs to the good.

Amen.

You can surrender to the gentle wind of the spirit and let yourself be carried

1. The second being is like a young bull, the bull as a witness to procreation, the bull for virginity and the nobility of procreation when blessed, when it springs forth from My Will. He is like the opening and budding spring that now spreads before your eyes, painting colors like the Virgin Mary's: tender, pure, original, uncorrupted, full of the power to express itself, to flow forth, to liberate the spirits that lie within it.

2. The young bull resembles the generative power of My Love, which wants to open itself up and give itself away, offering itself in its tender yet powerful way. The young bull has horns. They are still growing; they have not yet fallen prey to evil. The power has only made itself his own for the good in the service of love. And so, this young spring in the Year of Judgment also represents for you a new, free time of the Kingdom of Peace. You can sprout, blossom, if you remain faithful in your original love for Me. You can surrender yourselves to the gentle wind of My Spirit and allow yourselves to be carried forward, striding wherever I wish to drive and lead you—namely, to the virgin birth of your soul into the Spirit...

Strive to make a firm covenant with all your senses

And so I tell you further that this Being represents the complete seriousness of remaining in the perfect order of My laws and My love. Strive to make a firm covenant with all your senses, to curb with complete seriousness this unbridled passion of earthly man, this earthly power of procreation, and to lead it to a higher goal, a higher order—namely, to submit to My blessing and My law, when I give you the impulse of will to be witnesses, witnesses of My love—Amen.

Believe, hope and love with Me in you

1. " And before the throne of God there is a sea of glass, like unto crystal." This is the fundamental wisdom of God, which sees through everything, the foundation for the further action of the will and power of God. "And from the throne of God proceed lightnings, thunders, and voices," that is, the lightnings that bestow knowledge, the thunders that shake evil to its core, and the voices that form into words in the hearts of men, which I am in you, your Father Jesus, and which is the face of man, which looks like a face of man. This is the state in which you move on earth, in which it seems that you have grown from the state of the lion, through the state of the bull, into the state of man.

2. Your spiritual development has progressed so far that your spirit gives your soul a human appearance, and this is all I in you, which I am promoting in you to develop, so that you may finally spread your wings before My Throne, the wings of an eagle, and soar into the spiritual skies, from whence you come, from whence you were sent, and from whence you receive the spiritual wisdom from My Heart.

3. Thus, the four beings are explained. They are integrated into your movement. You are the four beings before My Throne. You are shaken by the thunder of My voice, calling you to leave your old life, to leave the earth behind, to command the demons, to claim your rightful freedom, to allow the Spirit to work, and to be set free through My Word.

4. Yes, My child, command the dark beings to leave you to bear My witness and open to you the freedom of heaven and the freedom of the spirit, so that this sister, too, may be granted the flight of the eagle and her human appearance may become real, true divine humanity, so that it will not only have the appearance and semblance of a human face, but My humanity, My divine humanity, will be realized in you. This is the word I give you now, to strengthen you, to confirm you, and to make you witnesses of My love, of My life.

5. Advance further in the revelation, advance further so that the revelation is expressed in you. You are the revelation of John, you are the revelation of My love. John is My favorite disciple in correspondence. You are My favorite disciples. You, My little children, have been My favorites from the beginning, for My love conceived and bore you. My love drew you and sent you into the darkness of the world so that you could become independent children of My love from within. I want to make you into little gods and place you on the throne at My right hand, representing the 24 elders. In correspondence, you are the 24 elders, and the number has the significance that you can exist before My throne in My order, in My love and wisdom as the 2nd and in order as the 4th.

6. I will fill you with My wisdom, for you are filled with My love, and you will be able to consult on how this time of the Kingdom of Peace will continue. I allow everything to happen so that it may become a testimony. I have called you as witnesses, to bear witness to freedom, for I am the Victorious always. Believe, hope, and love with Me in you and through you.

Amen. Your Father Jesus, - Amen.

I am always the Lamb who opens the seven seals in you

1. My child, you ask yourself: What does the Revelation of John mean in a deeper sense for you, for humanity, for My followers? - Yes, it can be interpreted in several ways: firstly, as the inner development process of each individual human being, from the animal human being to the heavenly human being, from the undeveloped state of soul to the spirit-filled state of soul, in which state the 24 elders arise fully powerful before My throne, crowned with golden wreaths on their heads, that is, crowned after all the suffering that the Apocalypse brings with it, in order to bring death to the lower human being and to help the higher human being to the resurrection.

2. So too can the revelation be traced externally in the history of humanity since My arrival, particularly intensely in the last three centuries in the wars, revolutions, famines, uprisings and above all in the last two world wars in your country. [This book was originally written in German, so you can guess the country.]

3. My child! - Continue to delve deeper into this topic, for it should become clear to you, too, what the revelation has to do with your life here on earth, both in detail and in general, and that you already received this revelation in your heart before your earthly journey.

4. My little children! Before you stood at the altar and prayed: "Jesus, let us come here to earth to follow You, to become among the elders, to become a child of the 144,000 faithful, to succeed the 12 tribes," then—in this state I revealed to you the revelation, the inner apocalypse, through which you must go if you wish to receive the crown of victory from Me on earth.

5. And so I am always the Lamb who opens the 7 seals in you and kills one instinct after another within you, if only you want to belong to My will and the rainbows shine within you, the colors of the perfectly pure, humble light within you, namely as the 7 qualities that become fully powerful when you follow the path, the way, the truth and the life that I am within you. And only then do you worship Me fully, sprinkle incense into the cauldron for Me, fully light the coals, that is, the love fires of your heart, and your prayers, your acts of love, your love of neighbor and God rise up to My heart and give Me a pleasing fragrance for My altar, which is always ready within you and also outside of you to receive sacrifices.

6. Prepare yourselves, My little children, for time on earth is always very short compared to eternity. What you bring to fulfillment in yourselves here on earth as a revelation is a work done for all eternity and for the new creation of man. Then I will sing in you the new song of love, which rises above the old laws and allows the two commandments of love to flare up before Me as the highest flame.

7. Strive forward, My child, and allow yourself to be prepared to become a sacrificial lamb of My love, for we are one, and our love melts together like a great ball of fire, in which everything dark and impure dissolves. So come, My little children, come and hear what I have to reveal to you in your hearts, so that you may continue the path of sacrifice and suffering strengthened.

Amen. Your Father Jesus, - Amen.

Be filled with the wonderful fruits of the revelation of My Love

1. You ask yourself, My child, what else do the four beings mean? You want to go deeper. My answers flow to you in your heart: the four beings: fertilization, blossom, fruit, and maturity. Birth: the child, the youth, the man, and the old man. Birth, life, fulfillment, transformation, or in earthly terms, death. But death, in turn, means life, and each being has six wings, arranged on either side so as to be evenly aligned. Right in the middle, three wings are arranged on either side. That is, in My order, the divine creative power gives the spirit a body to house the soul, a soul to offer the spirit a place of creation on earth, and the spirit that fulfills the function of the wings within itself when they rise towards heaven for spiritual flight.

2. They are also the life forces, the intellectual forces, the emotional forces, and the spiritual forces. These are the eyes that are within and without the being. The inner eyes are to be guided inward to the spirit, to receive the fulfillment of life's purpose, and the outer eyes are to ward off the danger of falling, to recognize that the outer is also a message for the inner, that the outer simultaneously contains an inner and an innermost being, which is expressed in the wings that beat outward so that the being can fly, so that the spirit can develop, yet still and firmly directed inward, turning to the Lord, to Love, and to the Highest.

3. Thus, the four beings are to be understood in many deeper and even deeper correspondences. Thus, the development of the soul toward the spiritual is to be absorbed. And I give this to you so that you may be filled with the wonderful fruits of the revelation of My love.

Amen. Your Father Jesus, - Amen.

The Lamb of Humility alone has the power to open the seals

1. With this work, you feel like you're reinventing the wheel once again, because so many interpretations of the Book of Revelation have already been made. Yes, My child, every person has their own interpretation of the Book of Revelation, but you are not reinventing the wheel; you are simply riding it at a faster pace, at a different pace, in a different way. For just as I unseal and anew reveal this revelation in you, so it happens in the hearts of My little children, in each one individually. And you can calmly continue to obey My voice and push away doubt, banish thoughts of doubt into the realm of temptation, and obey only Me. For only I in you open the 7 seals. The Lamb of Humility alone has the power to reveal the secret, to open the seals, and to reveal their contents.

2. The 7 seals, again as a symbol of My 7 divine attributes, are to be broken within you, and so I receive the scroll, the book scroll, from the hand of My Father, that is, from the hand of the almighty God in Me, your Father Jesus Christ, for the Son receives all wisdom from His love, for the Son has given Himself completely and is alone worthy to open the seals and open the book scroll.

3. Therefore, My children, place your wreaths before My Throne and say from your heart: "Worthy are You, our Lord and God, to receive glory and honor and power, for You are the One who created the world. By Your will it was and was created." My little children, I will open the book for you and read it, for I have conquered as the Lion of the Tribe of Judah, as the Branch from the Root of David. I am coming—yes, I am coming soon! My love for you draws the bow. Amen.

*

Tuesday, May 9, 2006 - III

My will in you should prevail

1. And so I open in you, as your beloved Father and as your Lamb of God, the first seal and the first being. The Lion of Judah, Love, calls to you: "Come and see what the Lord has done for you! Come and see, become man, as He became man on earth, to receive His gifts." And out comes the white horse, on which sits One who has a bow in His hand, who strikes a bow; it is Love. It strikes the bow, it bends down from the Most High into the low valley of humility. It bends and it rounds everything off. It opens the way within you. I open the way to love for you, and it is love alone that receives the full power in the first seal to kill the old Adamic love and to allow itself to be transformed, to bend into the love of humility, to follow me and to draw the bow, to shoot the arrow of love and to strike directly into the heart of God.

2. It is My love within you; it is My seal, which I open within you, break open, and reveal to you the secret of love. All love springs from this one love. Now you can use this love for spiritual development and give it to Me, lay it on the cross, lay aside your self-love, and recognize that all apocalyptic events that enter your life serve only this one purpose: to stop the seal and to obtain and preserve the secret of Heaven.

3. I am purity, the pure white horse, humility, clarity, true purity, true love, and from Me it follows that wisdom opens to the blood of love. And when I open the second seal within you and the second being within you calls out: "Come and see!" then recognize that the blood-red, fiery horse is the sacrifice you must make, that your wisdom bows down before the deeds of My love, that the worldly wisdom within you must die and gratefully accept death. For it is love, perfect, self-sacrificing, self-denying love, that must find expression in the second opening of the seal: the love of God, the love of God in your spirit.

4. Then your heart also burns, glows with fire, and the other horse turns fiery red. If you are unable to surrender your wisdom, your worldly wisdom, to love, then the one who sits on the fiery red horse has the power to take peace from your earth, for worldly wisdom brings no true peace. This peace that the world gives you is a false peace, and this worldly wisdom within you causes people to slaughter each other.

5. A great sword was given to him, the sword of truth, of true wisdom, My Word, My love, My Word of love. And with this sword, he who opens the seal and breaks open the mystery within you, reveals it, seals his life within you, reveals his name within you, calls you to be witnesses, will be victorious. It is the youth within you who calls out: Come and see the second being, who develops into a human being, who points to humanity, who points to the Father and the Son, who unites love with the Word of true wisdom.

6. Go deeper into your first, second seal. Let Me break open for you, let Me show you the guidance within you, and come with Me when the third seal is opened, which manifests My will in you, when your will surrenders to death, down into the dark blackness of the third horse, when My will can hold the balance in you. For My will maintains the balance in all creation, so that what I create is preserved and can only pass away when My will demands it. My will solidifies things into matter and allows them to dissolve again. My will in you should gain the upper hand. My will in you should show you that the third seal can always remain open if you submit yourselves to My will. - He who has ears, let him hear! - Amen.

Thursday, May 11, 2006 - I

I bring you to rebirth, which is the opening of the seven seals

1. And I saw: "In His right hand, He who sits on the throne holds a scroll. It is written inside and out and sealed with seven seals. God is the One on the Throne of Life. He is the Creator of the universe. He holds the scroll, His will, from which everything springs." - And the scroll signifies every creature, every creation that comes into reality from the hands and heart of God. And as long as man does not unseal himself to Me, the Heavenly Father, the One who, united with God, holds the scroll and, as a Lamb, as a sacrificed Son, can unseal it, he will not be able to recognize the mystery.

2. Every creation is written on both the inside and the outside. Every word of God is, in turn, a scroll, with deep mysteries on the inside and, on the outside—outwardly—describable by the human heart's understanding. Yet only I, in man, am able to unseal this mystery, this description of life. No one but Me could do this—neither angels nor unregenerate people nor the flesh. That is, no one on earth, in heaven, on earth, or under the earth could open the book and read it.

3. Without Me, you are helpless; you will not be able to decipher the secret of life, the scroll of your life, or unseal your secret. And because no one is considered worthy, your soul weeps. But one of the elders tells you: Do not weep, for the Lion of the tribe of Judah, the Branch from the Root of David, has triumphed—I, your Father Jesus, who sacrificed himself for you as a human being and united with God. I in you can open the secret of your life and the seven seals. I bring you to rebirth, which is the opening of the seven seals. The union, the complete becoming one with Me is the opening, is the opening for you to enter into the Kingdom of Heaven, into your heart, into life, to enter, to open yourselves and to unfold clearly and purely in love before God, so that you do not remain a mystery before My eyes, but that your mouth speaks as your heart feels, that outside is as inside, that you stand truly and faithfully upright like the lamb, like I Myself.

4. And then you will understand that I was slain and stand between the throne and the four living beings and in the midst of the elders as a Lamb, as a slain Lamb, bearing the seven horns, which signify the power and strength of life, the victory over death, the fulfillment of the law. And again, "to blow a horn" means to express itself, and "to bear a horn" means: I protect you, I in you defend you against everything that assails you from beneath the earth. And I in you open the seven eyes, the seven spirits above your earth. They watch and begin within you to complete the work of bringing the seven spirits, the seven attributes of My Divinity, into absolute harmony.

5. And when you surrender your will to Me, I will approach you and receive the book from the right hand of Him who sits on the throne. The God you have worshipped, sought, and longed for outside of you for long enough will become a Father within you, as I approach His right hand and receive the book from His right hand. In true wisdom, in true order, in the gradual development of your soul into the spirit, you too will receive the book and the removal of the seven seals with Me.

6. And when I have received the book in you, all paths of development, all four beings, fall down before Me, and the 24 elders also fall down before Me. That is, everything that was before is reckoned as a thing of the past. A new earth and a new heaven arise within you, and your stringed instruments resonate with My heart in a single chorus of glory and love, and your golden bowls, your hearts full of devotion, are filled with incense, full of prayer. Your works are the prayer that ascends to Me on the throne. And then, My little children, you sing a new song, and you recognize that only I in you am worthy to receive the book and to open its seals. I am worthy to receive you as My bride, for the only one, the only Bridegroom of life is I, your Father Jesus, and I receive you and open you and beget with you a new created human being.

7. You were My creatures, but now you are My little children. I create with you, receive, and pass on, and then you will realize that I have purchased life for you from God, the only true life. For what would happen if you only believed in matter? You would die with it, your faith would die with it! Where there is no faith, there is no hope, and where there is no hope, there is no life anymore. And so I make you kings and priests of the new kingdom on earth and in heaven. You come from all peoples, from all nations, from all tribes and languages. You are reunited as My people of God, whom I have never abandoned, but who have forgotten that I am the Lamb, the Guide, and the true Unsealer.

8. But now the time has dawned, the time of the Revelation of John, the Apocalypse, and you shall recognize that I open your seals and break you open and break you like the bread of life and distribute you for the nourishment and refreshment of men, so that they too may be incorporated into the kingdom, into the true life of God, and be initiated as children of God, to be allowed to rule with Me, to keep the seals open with Me, and to recognize with Me within themselves that life depends only on the sacrifice of their own will and their own desires. Then every creature in heaven and on earth, under the earth and on the sea, and everything in the world, will say: "To you alone, our Father, be praise, honor, glory, power, and worship!" - And all the heavens will be full of praise.

Amen. Your Father Jesus, - Amen.

Nothing can stand before Me that does not submit to the Spirit

1. In the midst of the four beings, I heard the words as if from a voice: "A measure of wheat for a dinar and three measures of barley for a dinar." These are basic foodstuffs, material for earthly survival. These can still be traded. You can fight for your body, buy, and sell. "But do not harm the oil and the wine!" No harm shall be done to spiritual development, the burning love for God, and the wine of love for My sacrificial death; these cannot be traded. My love for you exists , and your love for Me exists too. It is not bought or obtained by deception, but is a gift. The oil in your hearts is My gift of grace to you, if you ask for it, and the sacrificial wine in your veins flows through Me, through My sacrificial death for you, and no one can harm this sacrifice. You are protected in Me, you are protected in your soul, your spirit guards you in My name. Oil and wine, the spiritual life, means: My supreme premise is directed toward this spiritual life. Thus, death can also enter earthly life, destroy matter, kill a quarter of the earth—that is, destroy the material so that the spiritual can arise, has the power to kill with the sword of truth, with words, has the power to kill with hunger and death, and takes away the body.

2. You thought, My little child, that only a miracle could help now, but isn't it the greatest miracle I have already performed in this child, to advance the spiritual transformation in such a short time? The true miracle on earth will always be spiritual awakening and rebirth. Therefore, I also allow death to kill a quarter, to destroy the order of the normally thinking human being, to sweep away all their ideas of a happy life on earth and turn their gaze to Me, to the higher spiritual life. "Power to kill through the animals of the earth," that is, animal desires are permitted to kill the soul, to kill the body, but not the spirit, for it is protected and preserved when the soul turns to Me in its greatest need. That is the greater part, that is salvation from earthly decline, that is the sacrifice I also demand of souls, the souls who have sacrificed themselves for the faith. For when I opened the fifth seal, I gave you the testimony to wait, to be patient, until even the last sacrificial soul is brought home to My Heart, to My Father's house. And there will be more and more sacrificial souls who are called to Me through a painful earthly journey, the souls who are still breathing out the old millennium and calling to Me, and who have consciously chosen this path to release many souls from Satan's chamber of hell and to put on the reins of self-denial.

3. This child, too, is such a soul, and through her, too, the full number is reached. Through her death, another child, a child of My love, a handmaiden is brought home, and that means she must wait a short while longer, a duration that, before My eyes, is an eternity. So, too, My child must wait a short time longer, until the full number is reached through the death of her final wishes and ideas. Yes, "death" is the mysterious word that My Own move in their hearts, which I suggest to them; for the world, a foolish thought, an absurdity. The world does not understand this action.

4. Yes, be careful! The world will accuse you and attack you, but I am the Lamb, and I will open the sixth seal, and there will be a great earthquake, and the sun will become dark like sackcloth, and the moon will be filled like blood. The stars of heaven will fall to the earth, like a fig tree sheds its fruit when shaken by a storm. Thus, you have before you the living example of the Apocalypse through this child, through your spiritual sister, and the heavens will vanish like a scroll being rolled up. And all the mountains and islands will be moved from their place—that is, all ideas, all fixed opinions, all saving thoughts will be pushed aside, for the King of Glory wants to reap abundant fruit, and He will appreciate this harvest.

5. I, your Father, am the only true King of the earth, and so the kings of the earth, the great men, the commanders, the rich and the mighty—yes, all the slaves and all the free men—will hide themselves in the caves and rocks, in their reasoning and their reasoning, and they will say, "Fall on us, you mountains and rocks, and hide us from the face of him who sits on the throne and from the wrath of the Lamb, for the great day of his wrath has come. Who can stand?"

6. Yes, everything must give way, My child, everything must die! A great sacrifice is announced in this Year of Judgment, a great voluntary sacrifice will be made by this child. And thus the revelation is fulfilled again, and all the kings and the military leaders and the free men and also the slaves—that is, the desires of the flesh, the rulers of body and soul—will hide and prostrate themselves on their knees and recognize that only My hand can truly liberate, and that only My love, My so-called wrath, My will counts. Yes, nothing can stand before Me that does not submit to the spirit. The sixth seal is opened in this child: it is the heart. Her simplicity will bear witness, and she must never again learn the wisdom of the world. Yes, she shall remain in her simplicity, in her simple clarity, remain like the child at My father's breast, remain as I wanted her to be, and also lay aside all zeal and devote herself to the simple, straightforward life.

Amen. Your Father Jesus, - Amen.

The Marking of God's Servants

1. After this, I saw four angels standing at the four corners of the earth, holding the four winds of the earth so that the wind would not blow on the land or the sea or against any tree. Then I saw another angel ascending from the rising sun. He had the seal of the living God, and he cried out in a loud voice to the four angels who had been given authority to harm the land and the sea, "Do not harm the land or the sea or the trees until we have sealed the servants of our God on their foreheads."

2. My little children! I will only allow the battle of the four winds when your spirit is awakened. I am the fifth angel, who comes from the sunrise into your hearts, who lets the spiritual sun shine in your hearts, who awakens the spirit so that it is strong enough to wage the battle against Satan. The four ends, your mind, your intellect, your will, and your senses, are guarded by the spirits of order, the guardian spirits I have placed with you. And when it becomes apparent that you recognize My order and My love and want to begin the battle of faith—that is, when your spirit is awakened to live love—only then will the battle be permitted, only then will the temptation be permitted, so that the soul can be bound and the spirit can flow into it in liberation.

3. Then all the seas and all the lands will be shaken. The wind will blow against the trees, meaning your soul will be shaken to its very foundations, in its mind, in its intellect, in its will, in its volition—yes, even in its senses. It will be shaken in all its senses. Sensuality will have to die, lay down the power it had over you. The old earth, Adam, and Eve, in union with Lucifer's serpent, must die. But first, you will be marked, meaning you will experience My Spirit of Love in your heart. I will give you the sweetness of spiritual life. I will hold you through the four angels. I will have your winds from all four directions hold you, so that your soul will not perish during the struggle and the path of development toward the spiritual. This is the covenant I have made with you! This is My love, which calls in your hearts to the struggle of faith, so that the new earth may arise in you, so that the new heaven may arise.

4. My little children! – Recognize the revelation as the inner path of development of your soul, then you will be able to apply it in correspondence to the external events of the past and also of the future, and recognize that the Apocalypse of John is a world-shaking, fulfilling revelation, which, however, will only come into effect when you have recognized yourselves as My servants, when you take the following of Christ seriously, when you embark on the struggle of overcoming and want to become overcomers.

5. Yes, this is how you have recognized it: Days, weeks, and months pass by in a peaceful life, and one day you wake up, and the evil one stirs up your heart, and it becomes an evil day, on which all the hordes of hell join forces to bring you down, to plunge the sword into the heart of you warriors, to destroy your faith, to shower you with the poison of doubt and mow you down, to drive you to misdeeds, to make you resort to even more poison: alcohol, anger, envy, jealousy. Then, My little children, remember that I have marked you and that this battle is only permitted so that you may grow strong, so that you may apply My teachings and My admonitions and become conquerors, so that you may grasp the sword of truth and, in that moment of vigilance and clear vision, apply the spiritual powers that I give you and ward off the demons and the attack. Then speak in My name with power and a loud voice:

6. "In the name of Jesus Christ: All the angels and hosts of heaven stand by me and testify that I am a servant of God, one marked by heaven, that I am a child of Jesus Christ, my heavenly Father and God Jesus Jehovah Zebaoth, and that I have truly won the victory through His blood, which He shed on the cross. And I now command you to leave my sphere, from my heart, so that this evil bubble in my heart may now dry up and the evil spirits and demons may be driven out, so that only the true and good spirit of love may reign within me!"

7. Then you can command the demons or spirits to call their ugly names. They may be: anger, envy, fear, doubt, pretense, deceit. They must confess their name and flee in the face of My power and My name, Jesus Christ, for I am the Lord in your heart, and I am commander over the four angels in all four corners of the earth. I am the fifth angel of seriousness, who expresses the power in you to command the authorities and the evil hosts and the evil powers. For their power is vain in the face of My power of love, My strength and glory. - And amen, I say to you, My little children:

8. You will win the victory with Me, for I am in you. I am the living God and I cry out to the powers of hell to leave the land and the sea and not to harm the land, the sea, or the trees, for even the four angels of My love are opposed by the devils, so that you may become conquerors in battle. But you are marked with My seal on your forehead, that is, on your soul. You stand up to evil by holding up My seal, My victory, and the seal of My victory to evil and saying to it: "You cannot conquer us, for the Lord is with us!" - And I say to you: You are the 144,000, you are the children and sons of Israel from all tribes, from all 12 tribes you are the 12,000, and I am the law in you, I am the two commandments of love in you.

9. I have fulfilled Moses' commandments and given you the two commandments of love as a new law, and you are the thousands, the zeros behind the one. I am the one, I am the twelve, I am the law, I am also everything. I am the love in you, My little children, and through love the law is fulfilled. Through love for Me you will conquer, you will remain victorious for all eternity. In heaven you will praise and glorify My miraculous redemption in you, in heaven, which is already rising in you like a rising sun, chasing and driving away the darkness. Everything that wants to attack you, that wants to tempt you: you are resistance fighters in My name.

Amen. Your Father Jesus, - Amen.

With loving wisdom and power I have brought creation into being

1. My children! Numbers have forms, forms have meaning, meaning has sense. Sense has spirit, spirit is the beginning of creation, is the One, I am, I am God. Binary numbers in your computer system, numbers in revelation are the simplest form of expression of that which cannot actually be expressed in order to make it comprehensible to you, and yet can be understood in the deepest depths of the soul, in the plainest simplicity. There is the 1 as God, as Father. The Father already contains the 2 within Himself, for the word "Father" implies 2, the word "Son", and Father and Son contain the 3, for together they are the power of God, the power of love. The 1 is love, and the 2 is wisdom. The 1 and the 2 are the 12 and result in the 1000, again in the 1, followed by the deepest humility of God in giving His Son. 12,000 represents the Father, Love, and Wisdom in the tribe, and both together in humility represent the Spirit and Divinity, the unity, the homeland, and the Father's house; hence, 12,000 tribes. Tribe, the origin, the descent from God, nations, is the freedom to allow individual tribes to develop into something greater, into peoples, which in turn originate from tribes and nations and flow into them. When peoples recognize the power of God within them, they flow into nations. They become national.

2. My children! - My child thought, what this revelation contains cannot be expressed in words, but the Spirit says it, tells it to each and every one of you if you immerse yourselves in the spirit of My love. I give you the revelation and the explanation for it, and what I can now give you outwardly through this servant of Mine is only fragmentary. Enter into the 1, unite, enter into this silence of the 1 and bow to the Father in the form of the 2. Become a son to Him and surrender yourselves to humility with three following zeros, for from this comes creation. As 24 come from the Father and the Son, so does man come into being. From love and wisdom comes power, and with the wisdom of love and power I brought creation into being and let you recognize that you are the 12,000 times 12,000, the 144,000. Then calculate the sum of the digits of 144000, then you will recognize in the 9 that the lost creation has arrived in heaven again, that everything will be completely united in Me again, but only through humility, by confessing your nothingness and yet to an everything, when you pour yourself into the 1, into Me.

3. This is the throne before which the 24 elders bow and the 4 beings kneel. Morning, midday, evening and night, the 4 beings, the origination, the being, the transformation, the passing away and again the resurrection. Love, wisdom, power, sacrifice, again and again it is the 4 beings that bring you further in appearance, outwardly evident as the 4, yet enter into the 3, into the number of God, into Me and again enter into the Son, into the Lamb and allow themselves to be washed, pure and white, their garments in the blood of My Son, Who I am as your Father and Son at the same time, as your Father Jesus Christ.

4. Bow your heads and pray, for you are My little children, and this insight was only a brief glimpse into the insight of the spirit of this Revelation. 144,000—you can twist the numbers around, play with them, even be confused by them, but you can also bow down in humility and put on the pure white garments washed in My Blood, the white garments that signify humility, simplicity, and devotion.

5. Thus I speak as One of the Elders, who unites the Elders, who unites the six spirits through mercy, who is in them, sets them apart from Himself, and makes them comprehensible to you. "The throne is in the center, and around it they gather...": Those who gather around it are safe in the throne, for whoever bows to Me is received in Me and has become one in the 1, one with the 2, humbled in the 12,000, entered into the 144,000, into the sum of the digits 9, into perfection, into the homecoming.

6. My little children! Come, bow humbly and put on the pure white garments of love, simplicity, and humility. Thus I will always carry you in my arms of love, pressing you to my heart, for you see: In wisdom lies infinity, infinity is dissolved in eternity, but in love you always have the understanding of the spirit.

7. So let yourselves be enveloped in love, let yourselves be guarded and protected by the Lamb, the Lamb who is love, who brought love to earth for you, pouring himself out for His creation. The Lamb is humility, who guards you and never abandons you. I, your Father Jesus, am the Lamb and humility, am the throne in your heart, and I always guard you as My dear little children.

Amen.

Only when the seventh seal is opened in you can the true rebirth of the spirit take place

1. When the Lamb opened the seventh seal, a silence lasting half an hour fell in Heaven. When I open the seventh seal, the seal of mercy, in you, My children, a silence arises, a silence in which My power to endure pours into your hearts. Without this power to endure and show mercy, you would not be able to experience, endure, and emanate mercy yourself. I in you am the seventh, the true seal, which follows the other six seals. If the seventh seal were not sealed by Me until all the others were broken, your development toward the spirit could be jeopardized, and the true spirit of love and mercy could not pour into your hearts.

2. The seventh seal, which opens the chalice of mercy, can only be opened when at least half of rebirth has been achieved. For the duration of half an hour of your life, of your being, I work within you as your inner spirit, so that I can then pour Myself fully into your heart and open the seventh seal. Mercy demands a high degree of self-denial, and even though I meet you halfway—that is, for half an hour—you must still be strong enough to endure and understand this meeting of mine.

3. When mercy pours into your heart, you extend your hands to your brother in grace and forgiveness and understand what “grace before justice” means, what “the grace of God” means, and what My seventh quality in you can do for your brother who has sinned. I will open this seventh seal on humanity when the old Adam has died and the old time has sunk into nothingness in the hearts of men, and also on you as My followers, as the forerunners of true humanity, as My little children who can accept My mercy, who can recognize that I, the Lamb, was the first, the first human being on earth, to open the seventh seal in Myself on Golgotha, and also at the time when I accepted the cup and God broke the seventh seal in Me, in order to let My blood, My mercy, flow out over the poor race of humanity, which until then lived in darkness and could only be saved through the greatest act of mercy, since in you too, in every single human life on earth, salvation can only be achieved through mercy.

4. The soul's mission on earth can only be successfully completed when the person, the soul, recognizes Me as their merciful Father, as the true Lamb of God who sacrificed Himself for humanity, drinks My Blood, eats My Flesh and allows himself to be broken in My Name, allows himself to be sacrificed as a receptacle for new souls of lost brothers who can be saved through the act of sharing and through the opening of the seventh seal in the heart, the seventh seal which is the true heart of man. The mercy that then flows out into you flows into all eternity, and the duration of the half hour signifies the incarnation on earth until the moment of death, at which time I come to the place of your death to give you the other half of the hour, the hour of grace and mercy that takes your soul into the eternal heavens, which I am already preparing in you on earth, as you incline your heart towards Me in simplicity and humility in the half hour of silence.

5. The silence that opens the heavenly realms in your heart and opens all gates and doors is the time in which you realize that My mercy is infinite for those who show mercy, who forgive, who approach their brother who has sinned against them, reach out their hand to him, thus giving him half the hour again, and say to him: "Give me the other half by humbly accepting my forgiveness, by accepting Jesus in you and allowing mercy to prevail, by allowing Jesus to break the seventh seal in you, in order to also perform the act of grace on others who in turn have sinned against you." - And so the grace of mercy continues to flow, so the knowledge of the seventh seal continues to flow, of the key to your heart, of the key through your heart into the Kingdom of Heaven, My little children.

6. And seven angels stood before God, all seven attributes now lined up before the divine heart, and they were given seven trumpets. That is, through the soul-spiritual rebirth within you, all seven attributes within you become trumpets. Each one resounds in harmony with the others as a great oratorio of love, a great proclamation of the gospel of my love and grace, and as an indication that only when the seventh seal is opened within you can the true rebirth of the spirit occur. For then another angel comes and approaches the altar with a golden censer, that is, you yourselves approach the altar in your heart full of love, full of gifts of humility, full of devotion, full of contrition of heart, and the acts of mercy and forgiveness, the acts of love are put in as much incense that ascends to My Throne as the prayers of sanctification, as the prayers of My little children, My handmaids and servants, as the prayers and devotion of My followers, as the good fight of love that you have fought and the sacrifices that you have accepted, as you confessed My name before the world and still confess it before the world at all times.

7. You offer these prayers, these acts of love, this devotion, on the golden altar, that is, on the hearth of the Purista, on your own heart before My Throne, and from My hand within you, the incense rises into all, into all spaces of creation, before God, before the Power, before Love, before the Will of the Almighty. You offer yourselves as a prayer of mercy, and through this offering, the plan of love is fulfilled: salvation, salvation of the souls that I began with the opening of the seventh seal as Jesus of Nazareth, salvation of the prodigal son.

8. Let these words sink ever deeper into your heart, so that the hitherto hidden mystery of the Revelation of John may have a living effect on you in your heart and spirit, revealing itself to you. For revelation simultaneously has an effect; for revelation is alive, and the effect is present, and in the presence of the holy working of grace, I am your Lord and God in you as the Risen One, always active and present at the same time, in all glory and in all love. I open within you the realms of eternity, and through this I give you eternal life.

Amen. Your Father Jesus, - Amen.

The fire of selfless love ignites the work

1. And when a person has attained mercy within themselves, by Me breaking open their heart, opening the seal, revealing their innermost meaning, bringing it outward so that they can put it into practice on earth, then an angel takes the censer, the person's vessel, in which the incense is to be lit through acts of love, for incense can only burn and unfold its fragrance when a person expresses their love for God and for humanity through acts of charity out of love for God. Indeed, then the angel can fill the censer with the fire from the altar of the heart, the fire that first turns acts of love into true acts of love for God, into selfless acts.

2. The fire of selfless love ignites the work, makes it shine. From then on, the message, the prophecy, becomes a true banner in man, shaking the hearts of his neighbors and causing the roar of thunder to reach the farthest corners of the universe. Everything about man, in man, his actions and his thoughts, becomes a flash of knowledge for his neighbor and for himself, causing the heart to tremble, the senses to tremble, allowing the knowledge to shine from the heart and pervading the being of man from head to toe—that is, from his intellect through his entire being—until man sinks down in humility and worships Me in all his actions and deeds. He is then the vessel with which the angel, that is, the messenger and the message at the same time, can fill him with the true fire of love, which makes the incense, that is, the sacrificed life of man, burn and can carry it up as fragrance, as true fragrance, to the altar, to the heart of man and to the throne, to My Heart.

3. Only then, only then will everything a person does sound like a trumpet, and the Angel of Love can sound the first trumpet, that of the Word. Every stirring in a person on earth will become a message from Heaven, will become an angel who sounds the trumpet. Thus, what moves on earth, almost like clay and loose creatures, will be truly transformed and become a true human being, a true vessel of My Love.

Amen. Your Father Jesus, - Amen.

The angels are now preparing within you to blow the seven trumpets

1. And the seven angels prepared to blow the seven trumpets. The first angel blew his trumpet, and hail and fire mixed with blood fell upon the land. It burned up a third of the land, a third of the trees, and all the green grass. The angels prepared themselves. The messengers of the Lord prepared themselves. They concentrated on Me. I am within them and they have security through My Being in them, and what is ready is the development from within, the clarifying, the growing, and the preparation for the actual event. Thus, nothing will happen in your life when you surrender yourselves to Me that is not a preparation for the real thing, for life, eternity, true being.

2. And so, too, the first angel of representatives, the spirit of love within you, is always focused on Me, ready to sound the first trumpet, that is, to shake earthly love and prepare it for heavenly love, for spiritual love. Hence, cold anger falls in hail, angry love falls in fire—mixed with cold anger—and upon the foundation of life, blood, and destroys a third of the land. It falls upon the land that supposedly prepared itself to assume dominion in a person's earthly life, yet cannot endure if the person discovers true love within themselves, awakens their spirit, turns to Me, and allows the angel within them to prepare to sound the first trumpet, that is, to ignite the true light of love of God and neighbor.

3. But the sounds make everything that has developed in the animal being of the human being during his life on earth tremble. It shakes a third of the land, for selfish, greedy love, the first impulse in a person's childhood, is transformed into destructive fire, which suppresses the love of God and the spirit. Hail is colder, that is, feelings turned to ice, the calculation of egoism, a hardened heart—and this is the blood of people who are sacrificed to the goals of greed, selfishness, and self-love. Good insights are destroyed by this egoism of love in the animal part of man, and when the angel blows the trumpet, this part of man is in turn burned, destroyed, and annihilated, for it has no basis for spiritual life, for heavenly and spiritual love, for the true two-thirds that make up the true human being.

4. " And all grass will be destroyed," meaning that in the course of the transformation toward spiritual rebirth, the grass, the egoistic intellectual ideas, cannot endure; egoism cannot persist, but must be destroyed by itself, by hail, by fire, mixed with blood and tears of suffering. The blood that I shed on Golgotha paves the way for the new man, who rises from this destruction, who emerges from death and from the grave of death as a new being: man as a triune being. The first third, the body in both the natural and spiritual senses, must perish. The body in the spiritual sense consists of the natural drives, which are first necessary to build man's life on earth and to experience his distance from God, to bind the spirit, lest—unleashed too soon—it tears the soul apart in its lofty ideas, out of its primordial knowledge of being like God.

5. The spirit is bound during the first third of human life on earth, but when the first angel, the messenger from heaven, the messenger of true love, sounds his trumpet—that is, when the message of love vibrates, shatters, loudly, and resounds through the human soul—then hail and fire, mixed with blood, fall upon the earth. Humans recognize their earthly existence as the purpose of becoming children of God, and they are shaken to their very foundations, and I permeate them with My Spirit of Love so that they can grasp and live their lives as the true preparation for true life. Through this Spirit of Love for Me, your personal Father Jesus Christ, your lives will be transformed and reshaped, and the Apocalypse will be revealed to you as a complete preparation, and you will recognize the purpose of life, the life's existence on earth, as a great miracle of transformation. You will be prepared to endure pain and suffering and the contractions - patiently, for you feel safe in Me like the chick in the egg shortly before birth, enveloped, protected, kept from the hot rays of the sun, and you will feel, when the first contraction sounds, that I have prepared everything with you.

6. So see this one message: The angels are now preparing within you, at this time, to blow the seven trumpets. You open the pores of your lungs wide, fill them with spiritual air, with the breath of truth, expand your chest to admit much strength and breath, so that when you sound the trumpets, the sound can reach its target clearly and precisely, and place the offering on the altar for Me. In deepest humility, you prepare for the great suffering, the great sacrifice, and the death.

7. " A third of the land burned, a third of the trees burned, and all the green grass burned." This means: True love, like a fire, pervades everything that served only as the actual preparation for spiritual life, the first third of your life as the building up of earthly man, who must then rightfully sink back into the grave of destruction. The first trumpet always signifies the call of love, the call of true love, which is the longing for God in your heart. When this longing resounds and makes your heart ache, makes you look around in despair here on earth, not finding true fulfillment in human happiness, but pointing you to the higher life, to a higher happiness, to a higher fulfillment of love, then know that the angel within you, the first, the angel of love, has sounded My longing within you, and you are ready to leave everything, to sacrifice everything, that is not worthy of this true, sublime love of God.

8. Let go of human jealousies, let go of the cold calculations of reason, let go of the egotistical attitude. Let one-third of the earth be burned—that is, one-third of the physical, animal, and natural being within you. Let it arise, concentrate on the salvation of your soul, the second third, which is sustained by the spirit, the third third of perfection. The first 3, the second 3, and the third 3 together make up the 9, which is perfection, the homeward guidance. From the beginning of the 9, pull upwards on the basis of this number. Bend inward into the circle of the upper, sublime love of God and swing into the throne of perfection, into the heart of the Father.

Amen. Your Father Jesus, - Amen.

Wednesday 24 May 2006 - I

A new path in life must be taken

1. The second angel sounded his trumpet, and something like a great mountain burning with fire was thrown into the sea. A third of the sea turned to blood, a third of the sea creatures perished, and a third of the ships were destroyed.

2. My little children! - In the course of your life, worldly wisdom gathers along with divine wisdom and is mixed together. Worldly wisdom swells, driven by the need to know better, to be right, by arrogance, by the vanity of knowledge; it swells and becomes a fiery mountain in your life, which, however, must be thrown into the sea. This sea results from the many thoughts of worldly wisdom, from the feelings that grow from it, from an inflated soul life. And so it cannot be otherwise than that a third of the sea turns to blood. That is, you put your entire life force into defending insights you have once attained, turning them into dogmas so that they can be easily integrated into life and create a structure in which you can walk and act quite well. Yes, you defend your way of life, your thoughts, your insights, your ideas to the death, and so it cannot be otherwise that—when the mountain collapses, sinks into the sea, the sea will turn to blood, to a new elixir of life for a new foundation, for a third of the creatures in the sea will be destroyed. Your old foundation, upon which you built, will be destroyed when your spirit awakens and recognizes:

3. A new path in life must be taken; completely new insights will flow into you, nourished by the life of God. The old life, the first third of your earthly existence, will sink, be destroyed, and die, as will a third of the ships with which you transported your goods back and forth on the sea of worldly wisdom and knowledge. These means of transport, these ships of wisdom and knowledge, will also sink and be destroyed, for you can no longer use them. Greed as a means of enriching your earthly life must be destroyed; the jealousy with which you guard your insights and your spiritual wealth will have to perish, and thus all the thoughts that worldly wisdom absorbed will perish and be destroyed like the ships on the sea. A third of your being will lie down to sleep and never awaken.

4. My little children, the second angel blows the trumpet and shakes your previous understanding. Yes, you often still revel in soul experiences, how often you still defend your earthly possessions, how often your heart and mind still worry about the preservation of earthly matter, the foundation of your life here on earth, and yet you must recognize that these very worries are causing your blood to freeze and that it is necessary to allow this blood to be increasingly transformed into spiritual blood, the spiritual blood that I am infusing into your veins, which will make you aware of the true purpose of life, namely, spiritual life on earth. This transition is so tough and so terrible for many of you, for everything that previously built itself up for a secure life and bloated itself with dogmas and justifications must sink in the sea of My spiritual truth. And this does not happen without woe and sigh, and your soul already trembles before the coming woe, before the woe which inaugurates and must inaugurate the birth of the true child of life, and yet the child lies upside down and must turn, bend, hold its head down in humility in order to be happily born and held in the father's arms.

5. Therefore, strive and endeavor not to miss the sound of the trumpet, but to truly recognize when the trials of the second angel sound the trumpet within you. Let these sounds, these vibrations, and oscillations completely permeate you, and lay this third of your offering at My feet. Bring it to My heart, turn to My fatherly love in prayer and in the request for the reception of your heart into the spirit, so that when the third angel blows the trumpet, you will be prepared when the great star falls from heaven, burning like a torch and piercing deep into your heart, so that your heart, even more expanded and awakened, spreads out into a great red carpet upon which I can walk, from you to your brothers and sisters, to the last human being in the great spiritual and also material creation, all the way to the angelic realms. Let yourselves be shaken by the sound of the trumpet and gratefully accept in this year of judgment what I am offering in you for transformation, so that the Spirit can rule your life and I can thus become Lord and Master of your life.

Amen. Your Father Jesus. Amen.

Let the source of your self-will dry up

1. The third angel blew his trumpet. Then a great star fell from heaven, burning like a torch. It fell on a third of the rivers and on the springs of water. The name of the star is "Wormwood." Then a third of the water turned to wormwood, and many people died because the water had become bitter. The great star, one's own will, the self-loving will, and the self-goodness of the will in man falls from heaven. Luciferic thinking falls when the soul recognizes My will and elevates it as the general will to its Lord, Judge, Guide, and Teacher. One's own will is called "wormwood"; one's own will, whether good or evil, is always bitter for oneself and for one's fellow human beings as long as it has not been surrendered to My will. It shines as a star in the sky of human life, and yet: one's own will is often an obstacle to My Will, often opposes it, thwarts My plans and makes My patience wait and wait, the Lord of Heaven and Earth, until He falls from the self-important vault of heaven, bows down, submits Himself in everything, in daily life, in small as well as large decisions.

2. "Lord, Our Father, Your will be done!" - When this word resounds, when this sentence is prayed constantly and incessantly within a person, then everything that came before will seem bitter and stale, for even good works, good thoughts, and good deeds will be recognized as the great, intrinsic good, which was not directly subject to My will or originated from My good, but rather from the soul's good. Spiritual good, true spiritual good, arises from the guidance of My will.

3. This star burns and shines, as long as man is still in upward spiritual development, like a torch, yet not like a sun. Rather, this will is constantly attacked by the will of other people, flickering now, now dimly, now dimming; now brightly shining, now muted. This torch is fickle. The glow of this star is fickle, for your will, separated from Mine, can never assert itself in true power unless—paired with My will—it appears as a sun in the firmament of human life. Thus, it is not surprising that it destroys a third of the river, a third of all springs, and makes the water bitter, for it leaves behind a person's work, if it springs too much from his own will, too much bitterness in the works and in the minds of his fellow human beings, in the minds of his neighbor. A trace of imperfection constantly clings to it, for this will is not embedded in the greater whole, in the realm of My Will, but flickers here and there. It shines briefly, then disappears again, is stubborn and fickle, and cannot warm and touch the soul of his fellow human being as completely as My Will can in man.

4. Therefore, let the source of your self-will dry up, for the water is bitter. Turn away from the flow of your own actions, for the result is bitter. It is not gentle and sweet, but always mixed with your own will, with your own ideas, with your own desire to be something and to be important, to represent something, to be noticed among your fellow men. The desire that your name not be forgotten, but to be honored, the desire to escape the annihilation of your own will. Ultimately, people are not awakened to life through the workings of their own will, but rather they die, succumb to spiritual sleep and spiritual death. For your own will can never draw from its full power, from its true source, if it is not able to submit itself to the Divine Will of My Love and My Grace.

5. So let the star fall from heaven, even if it is called "wormwood" and causes you bitterness. This bitterness, which Job always bore, you too must bear. This bitterness, which I drank with the cup in Gethsemane, you too must drink. Drink of the wormwood, so that it may transform you into true life, into true spiritual being, and wait for the angel of the fourth trumpet to enter your life and powerfully shake you up with the blast of his trumpet. This angel is within you; you will become this angel, and you will powerfully blow the trumpets of your life when you have understood and accepted the Apocalypse within you.

6. Genesis and the Apocalypse are two sides of the same coin, the two sides of a human life, and indeed identical. One is the upward development toward humanity, toward the true good in man; the other is the decline of the soul and the rise of the spiritual in man. Therefore, let yourselves be filled with My Holy Spirit, so that you may receive and understand from within the true power of this message, so that you may apply it to your life and introduce Me into the plan of the Kingdom of My Love.

Amen. Your Father Jesus, - Amen.

Three more angels will blow the trumpets

The fourth angel sounded his trumpet. A third of the sun, a third of the moon, and a third of the stars were struck, so that a third of them were darkened, and the day diminished by a third, and the night diminished by a third. And I looked and heard an eagle flying at the zenith, crying out with a loud voice: "Woe, woe, woe to those who live on the earth! Three more angels will sound the trumpet..."

Friday, May 26, 2006 - II

I make everything new

1. The outer loses its power to reach the inner and from there to the innermost. A third becomes darkened in order to reach the inner, to the brightness and from there to the innermost, to the spiritual brightness. The fourth angel of the spiritual order can only sound his trumpet when the star has fallen from heaven, when the third angel has sounded his trumpet and self-will falls. Then, My children, you have reached the center, your center, which I am. And it falls upon the sun. A third of the sun goes out, becomes darkened. The sun that has shown you the way in outer life: the structure of civil life, in social structures, in your outer knowledge, in knowledge of nature, of the constructs of society, in knowledge of your family.

2. This sun will be struck when you surrender yourselves to the mystical paths of transformation. All external order will be shaken. What was previously bright, clear, and illuminating to you will become dark, incomprehensible, useless—even meaningless, for it was only the entrance to the inner self, to the heart, and from there to the innermost being, to the spirit within your heart. Therefore, one-third will be darkened, one-third of the moon, of intellectual thought, you can surrender to death. Only when it is needed will I activate it within you, so that you can maintain outward appearances in social events, for no one can understand what is going on within you—except I within you, your heavenly and true Father Jesus.

3. Yes, and your worldly wisdom will also be struck down, so that it must fall and become dark. What previously shone and brought you joy in your life will become dark, obscure, and fall into the sea of the past, for it is no longer of any use. And so the day, the day in which you previously slept, the worldly day, will also be darkened and pass away, for the spiritual day arises, awakens within you, so that this day of worldly wisdom – also struck down – will sink into nothingness. And a third of the stars will be darkened, it says in the Book of Revelation, the stars that previously illuminated your night, the worldly night, so that you got by here on earth in your earthly life, struggling through all the demands, the moral and worldly demands, the worldly virtues, the worldly knowledge, the school wisdom. Yes, these stars that illuminated your night and your intellect will now also sink by a third. That is, the portion that was necessary to sustain you in outer life will no longer be needed, for the incarnation of the soul into the spirit means that you no longer have to prepare anything, no longer have to train yourselves intellectually, when I send you among men. When I send you as sheep among wolves, then you only have to be ready to serve your second and third thirds, ready to receive what is within and innermost and then to put your spirit in your soul to work when it is necessary for people in your sphere to experience something of inner life and be allowed to experience it as an example.

4. So it seems to you that you are becoming very forgetful - yes, it seems to you that you are even stupid or naive, or do not understand anything that the world offers or promotes to you. All of that loses its value. The world as the first third of your life loses its radiance, it becomes dull and sinks into the past of the former exciting earthly life. You die in your outer nature, even die in your soul's will, so that the spirit can flow in and only the spiritual life rules, shines, and gives you true warmth, true sun-love, through My love in you as your Father, Jesus Christ.

5. And when all this happens, whether it is brought about by illness, by spiritual distress, by pain, or by lightning and thunder—that is, by sudden realization, by transformation in your life—when this is brought about, then the eagle rises and cries out loudly three times, "Woe—woe, woe!" This means that the walls finally fall, the hardening melts away, the barriers in outer life are overturned, order disintegrates, and the divine order emerges: a new order, a new world, a new life. And then, with the first woe, My spirit form appears in you, and I am the first woe in you; I make all things new; that cannot happen without My Cross, My little children!

6. My Cross and the first woe is the path on the Mount of Olives, the step into solitude, the step into abandonment. And that is why your friends sleep; they do not persevere, they do not understand your woe, your suffering. And when the cup reaches your lips and you drink the first drop of wormwood, then your soul shakes and you understand the woe from within, the woe that leads to transformation, that surrenders the will to My love, that is ready to let self-will die. And your whole being is seized and trembles and enters the inner realms, into the inner word and hears My calling, My longing; and this too becomes woe, for now you are alone. The world does not understand you. Contempt, mockery, and betrayal follow, and in this state are a completely natural consequence of your development.

7. And the third woe is proclaimed by the eagle, by the spirit that soars above your soul into the air and gazes upon your soul to seize it, to intervene in it and penetrate it, to grasp it and never let go, to soar with it into the heights of the spirit. Then, when the third woe is over, My little children, a new life will follow, which will indeed continue on earth, but will be continued in the Heaven of My Love, will be perfected in My Spirit. And then everything you do, think, and feel will have a different radiance, a new direction, and will shine with a new light. Then the inner, the second third and the third third of your luminosity will come into play. The second third of the sun, the warmth of the soul and the spiritual power, will then truly shine and replace the first third, which was and is darkened, which is the darkness here on earth itself, which was necessary for the time being so that you could recognize, endure, and overcome your distance from God, so that your longing for God could grow within you. The true spiritual sun will then illuminate the rest of your life, and I will guide you—yes, I am already guiding you now in this time, in this hour, in your need, in your fear, in your darkness.

8. The night of the soul becomes even darker, so that you can immerse yourselves completely in the innermost spark of God, so that you can let go completely—yes, all external aids become useless to you, for only one thing remains: your staff and your rod, upon which you can lean, and that is I, your good Shepherd, who, when you have reached the innermost, will lead you to the green pastures of the spiritual shores and let you be refreshed by fresh waters. Then you will drink from the true springs, which are not bitter, whose water is not poisoned by the star of wormwood, from the water of life, from which you will not perish or die, but which will give you life, the water from the true spiritual source in your heart.

9. But first, everything external, the first third, must die and surrender to the inner for transformation, for resurrection, for true life from Me. This true life is then sustained by true love of God and true love of neighbor.

Amen. Your Father Jesus, - Amen.

You will always be safe through the true knowledge of love in your hearts

1. Only when the spirit is at the zenith of its activity—that is, when the soul of a child is ripe for the awakening of the spirit within it—is the cry "Woe, woe-woe!" cried out with a loud voice. Woe to the inhabitants of the earth, woe to the desires, the wishes, the ideas, the rational explanations. Woe to the moralists, woe to the false morality of an artificially constructed society in and around man. Three more angels will blow the trumpets, and the fifth angel will sound the trumpet. The entire being of the soul is now solemnly shaken, saturated with the sounds of conscience. For the star that fell from heaven to earth was Lucifer, the star called "Wormwood." And now you see him—he who has the key to the abyss, who holds in his hands the key to the shaft that leads into your unfathomable abyss. And when the eagle is high in the zenith, that is, the spirit within you is awakened, then Lucifer also receives permission to open the shaft and let you look into the abyss.

2. And he opens the shaft that leads to the deepest, hidden nature of your soul. The evil bubble in your heart is opened at the same time as the spirit is awakened, and the battle begins. You must now endure with seriousness and courage. You must fight within yourself when you gaze into the abyss, when desires rise like smoke, when jealousy, envy, greed, lies, and deceit take hold of your soul, spring from desires, and the sun of life is darkened, and the air, the breath of life, is darkened by smoke.

3. The wishes and desires of your body and soul obscure the clear, heavenly, angelic thinking that arises when the spirit flows into the soul and reveals the truth to it. Then, the truth is mixed with lies, and lies are twisted into truth, the truth of reason and human wisdom. But My truth is obscured, becomes gray, and a mixed truth is made of it, for the people of the earth always find reason and justification to twist true love and true teaching so that it appears as lies and deception.

4. My servants and handmaids, My prophets, are portrayed as liars; they are slandered. They are accused of being possessed by demons, so that the acrid smoke rises into the eyes of those who want to listen to them, who receive My Word from them as a first stimulus, as a first awakening, as a warning, as a summons to follow their inner spirit and not to allow themselves to be lulled and enveloped by the smoke of the desires and lusts of the body and soul.

5. My little children, this battle is a serious battle! Fight it and recognize that Lucifer creates an infinite amount of smoke within you, so that you can no longer see the true sun and breathe the clear, pure air of life and the truth of love. Close your eyes, turn inward, and breathe the pure air of divine truth and divine love, so that you may be saved, so that the locusts that emerge from the smoke do not overthrow you, and you lose the battle, lose yourselves in the intoxication of matter, and suffocate in the smoke that rises from the abyss.

6. The only way to escape this part of the Apocalypse safely is to turn to My sacrificial death, to turn to humility, to live in simplicity. Cast off your greedy desires, the faint false hopes of earthly happiness, and turn instead to the true peace of a God-filled heart, the true peace born of selfless charity, which actively intervenes where it is needed and does not watch as others win the Kingdom of Heaven for you. For this lie and this deception will cause the observer to inhale even more deeply the smoke rising from the abyss; they will fall prey to self-deception.

7. Only those little children who joyfully and freely accept the gifts of rebirth in My love and believe in them can endure the sound of the fifth trumpet, can escape into the rapture, that is, into their inner self, into the chamber of their heart, and there find peace forever. And when you must step out of the silence again into the smoke of the world, you will recognize it as the smoke from the abyss, and you will always be protected and secure through the true knowledge of love in your hearts, through the connection with Me and My presence. But you must also live through this event. You will recognize when and at what moment the fifth angel sounded the trumpet.

Amen. Your Father Jesus, - Amen.

Strive to let My love flow within you

1. The fifth angel sounded his trumpet. And I saw a star that had fallen from heaven to the earth. To him was given the key of the shaft that leads to the abyss, and he opened the shaft of the abyss. And smoke came out of the shaft like smoke from a great furnace, and the sun and the air were darkened by the smoke from the shaft. Out of the smoke came locusts on the earth—locusts, the creatures that live in dry grass and leap up suddenly, to the terror of the onlooker.

2. You remember your childhood, My child, when you were still turning the hay by hand in the field, and suddenly these agile, nimble little creatures shot out of the hay, and your father explained to you: "Those are locusts!" And when you saw the first large one and admired the strength with which it was able to cover great distances, you went into yourself and began to think and had joy in observing them and discovering new ones all the time, how they camouflaged themselves and adapted to hiding in the dry grass.

3. Yes, My little children, they hide and emerge at unexpected times—they, the doubts that gnaw at faith, devour hope, and destroy everything—attacking grass, hay, land, and trees. But these locusts are not permitted to harm the young seeds, the grass of the earth, and the trees. They are only allowed to prey on those who do not have the seal of God on their foreheads, but have marked themselves with the seal of matter and unbelief.

4. Out of the smoke came locusts over the earth, and they were given power like scorpions on earth. When scorpions sting, the injury is precise, very painful, and profound. It poisons people, poisons their imagination, their morals, their virtues, all the cobbled-together, dogmatic essence of simple church belief. For only those who bear the seal of My discipleship on their foreheads, who have entered into a covenant with Me, who accept the death on the cross, are protected from the bites and stings of scorpions, doubt, jealousy, and envy. Temptations may come, but they will not kill them. They were commanded not to kill people, but only to torment them—for five months, and they will torment them as a scorpion torments a person when it stings.

5. Yes, My little children, for those who have not fully and completely followed Me, with all its consequences, the day will come when locusts will attack them like scorpions, when doubts about the meaning of life will arise in them. They numb themselves with the pleasures of the material world of outward appearances, but just as one numbness lasts a short time, emptiness sets in the next moment, and new swarms of locusts arrive. They sting and torment, for the wishes and desires cannot be satisfied. Once one wish is fulfilled with the happiness of the earth, the pale, stale feeling of new dissatisfaction sets in. New wishes, new desires take its place. Infinite numbers of locusts gnaw and graze on everything that has given people even a little hope.

6. Whether people cling to theosophy, esotericism, the old church beliefs, or even to faith in matter, in the natural sciences, in the achievements of progress, they are still not satisfied—on the contrary, they are tormented for five months. Five times, in the number of seriousness, the moon rises and sets, appears and then becomes invisible again. That is, the night light of faith, which has not fully dedicated itself to Me, your Father Jesus, burns out, fades away, and becomes null and void without effectiveness.

7. And so the soul dies, My little children, and you watch, unable to do anything but pray and bless! You can plead in your heart that these brothers and sisters of yours may yet be saved—those who have devoted themselves to unbelief and indulge only in the belief in matter—those who have devoted themselves to the angel of the abyss and do not even know they are caught in its clutches. Therefore, strive to deepen the seal on your forehead, to strengthen the bond, to let My love flow within you, to make the covenant with Me, and to hold fast to faith in My death on the cross, in My redemption for you, in My resurrection within you.

Amen. Your Father Jesus, - Amen.

Your faith arises from the inner deep knowledge of My resurrection and My redemption in you

1. The smoke rising from the shaft represents all efforts on all levels to initiate guidance and distraction, to prevent people from recognizing and following the only true path, the path to the cross of My redemption. This smoke rises on all levels: the societal, the moral, the ecclesiastical, the social level. The smoke rises in the upbringing of children through media influence. The smoke represents hedonism and sensuality; it is even exuded as incense. It is presented as if it were something delicious that people should feast on. The smoke is lies and deception, and the distraction, the locusts, accompany the smoke, and the fact that they wear women's hair, only means that they are presented as if it were luminous truth, light and blond. They are dressed in harness like warhorses, and they are always ready with arguments to defend their theses and antitheses. Materialism, Marxism, dialectics, psychology, esotericism, church morality and other endeavors are Satan's tools to seduce and mislead people.

2. Warhorses are being bridled in schools, in educational institutions—everywhere so-called continuing education takes place, in the ranks of the medical profession, medicine, research, the natural sciences, in schools, and in homes. They are constantly present everywhere: swarms of locusts that torment and attack people, stab them in the heart, and keep them on the brink of death, so that it seems they are still alive. And yet their spirits are gagged and driven toward death, the second death. Then people are so severed from the source of their strength that they almost despair, searching for rest and peace and unable to find it. They then wish for death and wish to find peace in death. But the torment continues, for even in physical death they will experience the terror of scorpions. And so there is only one way: to have the seal of the cross, of discipleship, inscribed on the forehead, on the head of the soul, and to walk the path of humility and the path of mercy.

3. Continue, My little children, continue, for the 7 letters, the 7 seals, the 7 trumpets, and the 7 vials of wrath are different stages of initiation into the spiritual life, different aspects of your development, the deepening of your soul's being into the spirit. So listen and recognize, believe and know, for your faith arises from the knowledge, from the inner, deep conscience and conscientiousness of My Resurrection and My Redemption within you.

Amen. Your Father Jesus, - Amen.

These were the words of our Lord Jesus Christ, which we were privileged to receive through His faithful handmaid. -
Thanks to Him all!

And the angel said to me, "These words are faithful and true. And God, the Lord of the holy prophets, has sent his angel to show his servants what must soon take place. Behold, I am coming soon! Blessed is he who keeps the words of the prophecy of this book."

And I am John, who saw and heard these things. And when I heard and saw them, I fell down to worship at the feet of the angel who showed me these things. And he said to me, "See that you do not do this, for I am your fellow servant and of your brothers the prophets and of those who keep the words of this book; worship God."

And He said to me, "Do not seal up the words of the prophecy of this book, for the time is near. Whoever is evil, let him still be evil; and whoever is unclean, let him still be unclean. But whoever is righteous, let him still be righteous; and whoever is holy, let him still be holy. And behold, I am coming quickly, and My reward is with Me, to give to each one according to his works.

I am the Alpha and the Omega, the beginning and the end, the first and the last.

Blessed are those who keep his commandments, so that their right may be on the tree of life, and they may enter through the gates into the city. For outside are dogs, sorcerers, sexually immoral, murderers, idolaters, and all who love and practice falsehood.

I, Jesus, have sent my angel to testify to you in the churches. I am the root of the lineage of David, a bright and morning star.

And the Spirit and the bride say, "Come!" And let whoever hears say, "Come!" And let whoever is thirsty come; and let whoever will take the water of life freely.

But I testify to everyone who hears the words of the prophecy of this book: If anyone adds to them, God will add to him the plagues written in this book. And if anyone takes away from the words of the book of this prophecy, God will take away his part from the book of life, and from the holy city, and from what is written in this book.

He who testifies to these things says: Yes, I am coming soon. Amen. - Yes, come, Lord Jesus!

The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all! - Amen.

4 Doctrine of inner things, secret doctrine

The loving light of the new Word will pave the way for divine love. - Jakob Lorber, July 25, 1842, afternoon.

[HiG.03_42.07.25.b] "Already in the east there stands a star which will clear the path for Orion, and the fire of the Great Dog will consume them all." (The Economy of God, Volume 1, Chapter 1, 12)

[HiG.03_42.07.25.b,01] What is the East, what is the star, what is Orion, what is the fire, what is the Great Dog? Who are those whom the fire of the Great Dog will consume? -

[HiG.03_42.07.25.b,02] The East is the inner living Word and through this the true understanding of the Holy Scriptures of both the Old and New Covenants.

[HiG.03_42.07.25.b,03] The star is the light of love in this Word itself.

[HiG.03_42.07.25.b,04] Orion is the love of God.

[HiG.03_42.07.25.b,05] The fire of the great dog signifies the great faithfulness of this love, for the dog is a sign of faithfulness.

Those, however, whom the fire will consume or confound are all worldly people.

[HiG.03_42.07.25.b,06] Thus, in other words, the above sentence means nothing other than:

[HiG.03_42.07.25.b,07] The love-light of the new Word will pave the way for divine love, and the faithfulness of this love will confound all the wicked, all the unbelievers, and the lukewarm, for the East is free, and the star of love already stands high! -

[HiG.03_42.07.25.b,08] This is the easy understanding of these somewhat higher-placed words. - But since I have now revealed them even more, they should be heeded all the more. Amen!

[HiG.03_42.07.25.b,09] This is what the great Orion says through His great dog, amen, amen, amen.

Revelation of Man

Just as the lion in its fearlessness, the youthful bull in its impetuous strength, and the eagle in its sharpness symbolize a human being who stands at the top of the animal hierarchy so that he can then easily be transformed into a human being, so the fourth countenance also bears the face of a human being, a human being who is in the process of overcoming his animal heritage:

"And before the throne there was a sea of glass like unto crystal; and in the middle around the throne were four living creatures full of eyes, in front and behind. The first living creature was like a lion, the second like a young bull, the third had a face like a man, and the fourth like an eagle in flight. And each of the four living creatures was full of eyes all around and within. Day and night they do not rest, but cry out: Holy, holy, holy is the Lord God of all things; he was and is and is to come." (Rev 4:6-8)

Here in Revelation there is a different order than the one I have mentioned. But that's beside the point, because here it's all about the inner meaning, and that means that man must first let go of his animal heritage in order to become a true human being, and that man, who still exists in the sequence of these animal characteristics, is not yet the human being he was destined to be. But man, who stands in these characteristics belonging to the animal kingdom, knows at least that he must now constantly look to Me as his Lord in order to become a sacrificial lamb, in order to be redeemed from the animal-human. Therefore, I am the sacrificial lamb, and as a human being on this earth, I do not stand in the animal sequence of lion, bull, and eagle, as humanity does when it has fallen into sin. Rather, this sequence contains the symbols of My divine characteristics as they come to fruition within your earth. And therefore, I am the sacrificial lamb who brings your animal characteristics to market in order to atone for the sins caused by the animal as a blood sacrifice. Through the Lamb, the animal man, who has become so carried away by his dogmas and regards his brothers and sisters as prey, is appeased and raised to the new man, for only the Lamb is worthy to break the seals of the inner spirit, so that the pure spirit does not become a judgment to the previous animal man.

With the Lamb begins the ascent to the God-man, but until the Lamb is slaughtered, the God-man cannot arise within you. The Lamb, therefore, also breaks all dogmas that still bind man to the animal kingdom, and as dogma after dogma is broken, so too is seal after seal loosened, and with each seal, the dogma living within him awakens, and from the innocence of the Lamb, it will be overcome. Each broken seal plunges the animal-man into the apocalypse, for his being, hitherto trapped in the dogmatic structure - whether as lion, bull, eagle - must be overcome if he himself is to become a Lamb. Just as the animals fight among themselves for food and make life difficult for each other, so too does the man who has not yet risen to become a Lamb, in whom I could not yet take up residence. But if man now looks constantly at Me - just as you, My children, do - he will be healed, and the neighbor he has experienced from his Adamic perspective will from now on no longer be perceived as frightening, but you will recognize in him the brother and the sister.

This is a brief overview of how you yourselves are the living revelation and why it is so important to see the animal within you redeemed. Some stimuli of fear and desire still flicker, and above all, jealousy and the nagging and contentious nature associated with it spoil many things for you. Too often, dogmas still war within you, the reflexes of the old human being, still connected to the animal kingdom, fight, and criticism of My People often reveals itself as an inability to enter into battle against the old human being within themselves, a battle in which I Myself would like to guide and lead you, and unfortunately, instead of offering yourselves as lambs, you only allow your brothers and sisters to fall upon the blade of your intellect and your old animal instincts. This battle will only be won if I Myself am your leader, and that I truly am, you can see from the way you come to terms with your neighbors. But pure thinking and brooding is of no use, for thinking alone has never conquered the animal, or does anyone still believe that one can destroy a lion with a mere thought? Of course, it's easy for Me, for with Me, a thought is already a firm deed, if I will it. Yet none of My Own will want to remain stuck in the old way of thinking – just for the sake of pleasure. Rather, My Own actually feel a certain joy in actively helping their neighbors out of Me, and in doing so, learn to overcome their fear.

Amen, Amen, Amen.
